

Nancy Togar was appointed to the Council on Aging Board in 2008 and serves on the 'donor development' committee.

Nancy's family has lived in Asheville since the 1950's and she is a member of the Colonial Dames and is the former President of the Children's Welfare League. She has served on the boards of Carolina Day School and the Asheville Opera. In addition to her residence in Asheville, Nancy and her husband, Tunch, owners of Togar Rugs, spend part of the year in Istanbul, Turkey, where they have a home and where their two daughters live full time.
